Project Title: Crittenton Garden Project

Progress Report  Final Report

Project Description

1. Briefly describe the project. What was done, when and where did project activities take place, and who were the beneficiaries?

Our club put in a vegetable garden in at the Crittenton center for abused and neglected pregnant teens. The project was completed at the end of March on their campus and will benefit the young teens with the experience of growing their own food and learning how to cook in a healthier manner.

2. How many Rotarians participated in the project? 8

3. What did they do? Please give at least two examples.
The Rotarians prepares the soil and planted the initial vegetable plants. The Rotary also paid for the garden materials.

4. How many non-Rotarians benefited from this project? 60-80

5. What are the expected long-term community impacts of the project?
There are over 60 young pregnant teens at the center and the garden will help them to appreciate more about where food comes from and help them to help them to make healthier eating decisions

6. If a cooperating organization was involved, what was its role?
None
