Project Description

1. Briefly describe the project outcomes. What was done (in 100 words or less)?

The project was to provide funding to CCAP for a vocational scholarship to a student or students interested in pursuing a career in the culinary arts. Scholarships will be awarded to students in Arizona, with a focus on the West Valley Area of Phoenix. The awarded students will be notified on April 18 2024. The original project was envisioned at a total cost of $3,750. $1,250 to be provided by the Rotary Club/Foundation of Verrado and the balance of $2,500 from the approved District Grant.

Subsequent to approval the Rotary Club of Verrado added $650 to its contribution, for a total of $1,900 from Verrado and $2,500 from the District Matching Grant for a total of $4,400.

When (dates) and where (city, state and country) did project activities take place?

The process of selecting scholarship recipients is based on a series of culinary competitions conducted by CCAP. CCAP will make the final decision on recipients. All activities took place in Maricopa County, Arizona

Who were the beneficiaries? CCAP. To provided funds for a scholarship for education in the culinary arts.

2. How many Rotarians participated in the project? 3

3. What did they do? Please give at least two examples.

Provided opportunities to allow CCAP students to demonstrate their skills for Rotarians and others, under the supervision of a CCAP chef. Helped to administer the grant. Provided a culinary demonstration to the club along with selected students.

4. How many non-Rotarians benefited from this project? 1 or more Arizona students to be selected and awarded April 18.

5. What are the expected long-term community impacts of the project?

The scholarships will allow aspiring student or students the financial support to pursue vocational training in the culinary arts.

6. If a cooperating organization was involved, what was its role?

CCAP administered the qualification and selection of current high school sponsored culinary students through a competitive format. Local chefs (including a member of the Rotary Club of Verrado) supervised the competition and selected the scholarship the recipient(s) based on the outcome of the culinary competitions.
