

District Grant Report

Rotary Club: The Rotary Club of Woodridge
Project Title: Woodridge Rotary Redbud Tree

Progress Report Final Report

- Briefly describe the project. What was done, when and where did project activities take place, and who were the beneficiaries?
This Pollinator Tree is planted at The Fred Honeke Community center in Woodridge to honor a long time Rotarian, Mike Adams, who is retiring from His Executive Director position
- How many Rotarians participated in the project?
Tree was planted by the Park district. The Rotary Club of Woodridge will gather for the Ceremony to honor Mike Adams – estimated 15 attendees
- What did they do? Please give at least two examples.
We collaborated with the park district to choose the tree and the Plaque. Rotarian, Jenny Knitter headed the project and arranged for the tree planting and also the design of the Plaque
- How many non-Rotarians benefited from this project?
The Community of Woodridge will see the Tree and the plaque as they Enter the Community Center for a variety of events. Estimated several hundred people a week
- What are the expected long-term community impacts of the project?
This Tree will be a continuation of honoring all directors of the park District and be a symbol of the Village's commitment to planting native plants and pollinators.
- If a cooperating organization was involved, what was its role? The Woodridge Park District, under the leadership of Jenny Knitter, the incoming executive director worked closely with the Rotary Club to keep costs reasonable and the planting done this spring.
